

Patient Medical Record		Patient Name: Alice Age: 70 Gender: Female Patient ID: 394
Admit Date April 30, 2009	Admitting Physician Dr. Smith	Family/Caregiver Richard (husband)	Admitting Diagnosis Fatigue; inability to speak
Date of Onset April 30, 2009	Employment Status Retired	Employer/Occupation Elementary school teacher	Treatment Diagnosis L CVA
Medications Coumadin Lasix	Insurance Medicare	Secondary Diagnoses Edema R hemiplegia
History of Current Condition/Surgery Pt admitted 4/30 due to increased fatigue and inability to speak. Symptoms began on airplane while traveling from Washington to Connecticut. Pt has been taking Coumadin for two weeks due to blood clots in her left leg and recently began taking Lasix. Upon admission, neurologic assessment revealed L CVA.
Precautions Fall risk; no RUE PROM above 90°
Past Medical/Surgical History Blood clots in LLE; edema
Prior Level of Function Pt is a retired elementary school teacher; did not require assistance for daily tasks
Home Situation/DME Pt lives with her husband in a one-story home

Adapted from Lynne Murphy, EdD, OTR/L
Assistant Professor, East Caroline University
Department of Occupational Therapy